Your employer

The Department of Education (DoE) is committed to ensuring Queenslanders have the education and skills they need to contribute to the economic and social development of Queensland. The department delivers world class education services for people at every stage of their personal and professional development. We are also committed to ensuring our education systems are aligned to the state's employment, skills and economic priorities. DoE is a diverse organisation with the largest workforce in the state. We are committed to teaching and learning environments that have at their centre child/student and staff health and safety.

For more information about the department, please visit our website at www.qed.qld.gov.au

We provide services through the following service delivery areas:

- State Schools Division delivers high quality education to more than 70 percent of all Queensland school students at prep, primary and secondary levels.
- Policy, Performance and Planning Division takes a strategic approach to driving the business of the portfolio, across, schooling, early childhood, education and care and Indigenous education policy. The division engages in policy development and intergovernmental relations, legislation, governance and planning, and monitors and reviews the department's performance framework. Since November 2020, the division hosts the Office of Racing, which provides policy advice and administers programs to build a sustainable Queensland racing industry.
- The Early Childhood and Education Improvement Division is responsible for the strategic management and implementation of early learning and development reforms, coordination of early childhood education and care programs, approval and regulation of services, supporting assessment and ratings and the quality improvement for all early childhood development and education improvement in Queensland. The Division is also responsible for monitoring and supporting school performance and improvement through the leadership and management of a school review program.
- The Finance and Assurance Services Division ensures a dedicated focus on the department's delivery on our substantial financial investments and commitments. The division incorporates the department's finance and procurement functions and works closely with Internal Audit.
- Infrastructure Services Division is responsible for sustainable investment in Education. It has three service streams, being asset provision, asset management and administration, and asset advice and advocacy.
- The People and Corporate Services Division consists of Human Resources, Strategic Communication and Engagement, Legal Services and Information and Technologies.

- The Office of Industrial Relations (OIR) contributes to the Government's strategic objectives in the areas of workplace health and safety, electrical safety, workers' compensation, industrial relations and labour hire regulation and seeks to improve performance in these areas through regulatory and policy frameworks and the provision of evidenced-based services and advice.
